

The POWER of a Healthier Tomorrow

Heather Cupp

IU School of Medicine

The Pediatric OverWeight Education and Research Program aims to improve the health of obese children (ages 2-18) and decrease the risks associated with obesity through a high quality, multi-level and multidiscipline clinical program. Through the clinic and outreach in the community the POWER Program works to foster research in the area of pediatric obesity.